

CLASSROOM.

How is this classroom similar to or different from the classroom that you are currently in?

What is the student in the back of the class thinking about?

How do teenagers relate to the girl in the back of the class?

If you feel guilty, do you feel judged by others, even if they seem to be accepting?

Do our values and morals change as we make decisions in our lives?

Do our behavioral choices affect our learning: i.e., in school, life learning?
