

WAITING.

What emotions or feelings is each one of the characters experiencing?

Where would you go or tell a friend to go to be checked for an STD?

Going to your doctor or visiting a clinic to be tested for an STD can be difficult to do. What might stop a person from getting tested?

Name several feelings that a person might experience when going to a clinic to be tested for an STD?

If you were the person in the waiting room, how do you think you would be perceived by others?

What symptoms might you have to cause you to visit an STD clinic?

Name several steps that you can take and decisions that you can make that will minimize the possibility of needing an STD test. What might make these steps or decisions difficult?