

INFORMATION.

How easy or difficult is it for teens to reach out for help?

What do the hands represent to you?

Are there positive or negative forces in your life that are trying to change your chosen path?
How do you recognize these forces and is it ever too late to make changes?

Who is your support system? Do you reach out to different people for different reasons (i.e., learn information, tell it like it is, comfort, feel better)? How can your support system help you make decisions?

When struggling with choices, how does having a healthy relationship with someone help you make decisions?

How important are role models in life? How do role models affect our life path?

How does the title of the artwork, "Information", relate to STDs, hepatitis and HIV?